CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS

FROM

PATTERSON, PUTNAM COUNTY, NEW YORK

There are fully one hundred and fifty stones in this cemetery, now used as a pasture, which are worn to the ground with age and by the action of the weather. It is situated on the roadside between Patterson and Towners and I was told was near the site of the first church in that vicinity but no ruins of any such edifice were visible.

"When you pass by my grave to see
Pray think and you prepared to be
Translated from this earthly stage
And in selected songs engage
At God's right hand to sing and tell
Christ Jesus saved my soul from hell
But if you've not been born of God
Your not in Heaven's happy road
But in the road of sin and death
O! Flee before you lose your breath
Or else in hell you'll take your share
Where all God's foes together are
Farewell my brethren here below
My happy soul has gone to know
The joys that Jesus promised me
When he from bondage set me free
Escaped from sorrow pain and woe
Secured in Christ from every foe"
